

Annex A

APEX APPROVED PORTS & APEX APPOINTED PTIS

With reference to the Contract Terms, APEX Approved Ports and APEX Appointed PTIs shall be as follows unless otherwise amended by the Exchange in its sole discretion and informed to the market through means including circulars and regulatory notices on APEX website.

An APEX Approved Port refers to any port approved by the Exchange for the purposes of physical delivery under APEX Crude Palm Oil Futures Contract. APEX Appointed PTI refers to any Port Tank Installation, approved by the Exchange, where the deliverable cargo is allowed to be stored and delivered for physical delivery purposes under APEX Crude Palm Oil Futures Contract. A Delivery Point, which is an extension to the Approved Port, refers to a location, in the district of any Approved Port, approved by the Exchange where the Seller is able to make delivery of cargo directly to a valid Buyer's vessel through a proper berth in the location for physical delivery purposes under APEX Crude Palm Oil Futures Contract.

The port location premium or discount are subject to periodic revisions at the Clearing House's sole discretion.
